DEFENSES

1. The petition contains grounds that have not been exhausted in the state courts.
2. The petition raises claims based purely on state law which are not cognizable on federal habeas review.
3. In the alternative, the state court adjudication of the petitioner's claims was not contrary to or an unreasonable application of clearly established Supreme Court law nor was it based on an unreasonable determination of the facts in light of the evidence presented in the state court.

The respondent respectfully reserves the right to amend or supplement this Answer in the future should the need arise.

Respectfully submitted,
